P.M.

Mayor Ritter called the Executive Session to order at 6:14 P.M. stating that the purpose of the session was to discuss on-going labor negotiations. Discussion was held concerning employees having residency within the City limits of Herrin. Attorney Patricia McMeen stated this matter had been discussed in negotiations and asked if she could use it as part of her bargaining negotiations. Several Council members had questions concerning city employees living outside city limits due to the fact that salaries come from tax money in corporate limits.
